

It's Happening Here!

A weekly electronic communication to the friends & families of the Placerville Seventh-day Adventist Church.

September 29, 2011

Dear Friend:

This time of year means that the major league baseball playoffs are soon to begin. My San Francisco Giants will not be in the postseason this year, much to my disappointment. However, no one can take the world series championship away from us from 2010!

This weekend we will have a lot of events to choose from. I will first of all, explain the various events of the Alumni Homecoming Weekend.

- Friday night there will be an vespers at Sage Hall at the Camino church. It will begin at 7:00pm and will be targeted to the youth.
- Sabbath school will take place at the EAS gym at 10:00am. There will be children's and an adult program.
- The worship service (11:00am) will feature more good music and a message by Jimmy Painter, a former Placerville church youth worker.
- Saturday night at 7:00pm will have a variety of Alumni sporting events at the gym.
- On Sunday there will be a golf tournament at 12:30pm. If interested call Larry Ballew at 391-3396.

We will also offer services here at the church, should you want to choose that option.

- There will not be Children's and Adult S.S. Classes. Milton Thorman, will have a general class for the adults, however.
- For the worship service (10:45am) Clinton Shankel will be the speaker.

Whether you choose to attend at the church or the school may you have a wonderful Sabbath!
